

DIPLOMA, M.A. AND Ph.D. IN HISTORY

Diploma

The Diploma program is designed to provide qualified teachers at the pre-university level with greater professional competency in the teaching of history. The program is offered on a part-time basis only.

Master of Arts

The M.A. program combines preparation in specific fields and training in the techniques of historical research and writing. It is designed both for teachers wishing to broaden their knowledge so as to improve the effectiveness of their classroom instruction and for those interested in advanced research and further graduate work.

Doctor of Philosophy

The Ph. D. program offers advanced professional training in the following areas of specialization: Canadian history, Modern European history, and United States history.

All courses in the M.A. and Ph.D. programs are offered in the evening in order to allow the participation of part-time as well as full-time students. Courses in the Diploma program are offered in the evening, as well as during the summer.

Admission and Residence Requirements

Applicants to the Diploma program are required to have a bachelor's degree with a major or minor in history or the equivalent. For those who plan to teach in the Québec school system, Québec teacher certification is also required.

Applicants to the M.A. program are required to have an Honours B.A. in History or its equivalent and may be required to make up undergraduate deficiencies in a qualifying year. Applicants to the Ph.D. program are required to have an M.A. degree in History. The minimum residence requirements for full-time students are one calendar year for the M.A. degree and two calendar years, after the completion of the M.A., for the Ph.D. degree.

Financial Aid

(M.A. and Ph.D. programs only)
In addition to the financial aid available from Canada Council and the Ministry of Education in the Province of Québec, the University awards a number of graduate fellowships and offers several teaching assistantships in the Department of History valued at $3,500 each.

Faculty

Alan H. Adamson, Ph. D.
(London): 19th Century British Social History and Latin America.
Charles L. Bertrand, Ph. D.
(Wisconsin): Italy since 1848 and European Social and Economic History Since 1900.
Frederick A. Bode, Ph.D.
(Yale): 19th Century United States and the American South.
Robin B. Bums, Ph.D.
(McGill): 19th Century Canada and the Immigrant in Canadian History.
Frank R. Chalk, Ph.D.
(Wisconsin): U.S. Foreign Relations and Africa.
Richard Diubaldo, Ph.D.
(Western Ontario): Northern Canada and Canadian-American Relations.
Donald Ginter, Ph.D.
(California, Berkeley): 18th Century Britain.
John L. Hill, Ph.D.
(Duke): Modern India.
William Hubbard, Ph.D.,
(Columbia): Social and Economic History of Modern Central and Eastern Europe.
Frederick Krantz, Ph.D.
(Cornell): Renaissance Europe.
John F. Laffey, Ph.D.
(Cornell): European Intellectual History and European Imperialism in China.
Michael Mason, Ph.D.
(Birmingham): Africa, Nigeria, and African Labour History.
Edward E. McCullough, Ph.D.
(McGill): European Imperialism in the 19th and 20th Century.
Cameron Nish, Doctorat
(Laval): Economic and Social History of French Canada.

C.B. O'Keefe, Ph.D.

(Toronto): Enlightenment in France, Church History of Early Modern Europe.

Lionel Rothkrug, Ph.D.
(California, Berkeley): 17th Century Europe.

George Rudé, Ph.D.

(London): English and French Social History in the 18th and 19th Century.

Stephen J. Scheinberg, Ph.D.
(Wisconsin): American Working Class History and Canadian-American Relations.

Martin Singer, M.A.

(Michigan): Chinese and Japanese History.

Irving H. Smith, Ph.D.

(McGill): Russian and European History in the 19th and 20th Century.

Robert Tittler, Ph.D.
(New York): Tudor and Stuart England.

Mary Vipond, Ph.D.
(Toronto): Cultural and Intellectual History of Twentieth Century Canada.

Robert E. Wall, Ph.D.
(Yale): American Colonial History.

Richard Wilbur, M.A.
(Queen's): The Maritimes and Canada between the Wars, 1920-1940

Information

For information and applications write:

Graduate Advisor
Department of History
Sir George Williams
Faculty of Arts
Concordia University
Montréal, Québec H3G 1M8